The s.s. Benarty left Singapore on the 7th Ir was a kind and thoughtful thing of Miss Amy Sherwin, the eminent singer who is at present amongst us, says the Singapore Free Press, to offer to visit the General Hospital and sing to the patients there, an offer naturally warmly welcomed by Dr Simon, on behalf of the inmates of that institution: Miss Sherwin's visit was arranged for 3 p.m., by which hour a number of the patients who were well enough to attend, chiefly European, had seembled in one of the wards on the ground floor of the main building which had been prepared for the occassion. Miss Sherwin was accompanied by Miss Fischer, Mr Gorlitz, and Mr Sherwin, and one or two other friends, were present to assist in the good work, including Mrs Simon berself. THE Foreign Envoys at Peking, sneing that on occasions of State rejoicing in foreign Courts, the Chinese Envoys accredited to those Courts always proceed in person to offer their congratulations, and are present at Royal or Imperial entertainments on such occasions, consider that on the occasions of the Ta Hwang ti's marriage, and accession to the throne of China, they should be admitted to gaze on the Celestial countenance and to tender their felicitations. They therefore wrote a joint letter to the Tsung-li Yamen, requesting that august body to convey the expression of this friendly desire to His Majesty. It is known that the Ministers of the Yamen held a consultation with Prince Ch'un on the subject, but it is not yet known what reply was returned. -Shen Pao.

Writing on this subject on a later date. the N.-C. Daily News says :- The Diplomatic Body at P. king made the not unreasonable request that they should be allowed to congratulate the Emperor in person on his marriage, and all they get is an invitation to dinner at the Foreign Office, where they are to have some trifling presents made them. It seems a little servile of our northern contemporary to call this 'mark-d courtesy'; most people think that the best answer the Ministers could make would be to decline both the dinner and the presents.

THE SANITARY BOARD.

A meeting of the Sanitary Board was held this afternoon, Dr Ayres, President, in the chair. There were also present : Hon. W. M. Deane, Captain Superintendent of Police: Hon. Wong Shing, Mr Ede and Mr W. E. Crow, Acting Sanitary Superentendent.

A letter was read from the Colonial Secretary asking the opinion of the Board as to the question of privies dealt with in the Building Ordinance. The Chairman said he would propose that there should be a meeting next week to discuss the question. He pointed out that there was no reference in the Building Ordinance to backyards, and he did not know where the privies would be put. Captain Deane pointed out that provision was made in the Health Ordinance for backvards. The Chairman said the Building Ordinance applied to new buildings on old and new land, while the section in the Health Ordinance relating to backyards only applied to new buildings on land acquired after the passing of the Act. If there was no provision for backyards where QUARTER-MILE RACE. (Three Prizes.) ( was the privy to be put? Section 51 said:

MURDER OF A CHINAMAN IN EAST STREET.

A West Indian seaman named John Delanchi, about 24 years of age, was brought before Mr Wodehouse in the Police Court this morning, charged with the murder of Cheung Achun (24), a cook. It appears that the prisoner went into a second-hand clothes shop in East Street, about six o'clock last night, estensibly for the purat 2 o'clock this morning.

The Sixth Prince (Kung) is in a somewhat perilous state, as the nature of his disease, an acute form of nephritis, it is said, tends to depress the nerve power of the sufferer, consequently his energies. This Prince, who is very rich, is naturally a man of great ability, and the stories about his innate superiority in state-craft to the forei :n Ministers, or most of them. would fill a volume. Unfortunately, the ability of the Prince, great as it was, was always on the negative note, always in favour of passivity or inaction, an attitude very dear to the Chinese men of state, and so it is the old Empire is lift behind in the race. - (hinese Times.
